MontGras Quatro 2007

Colchagua Valley: "Deep ruby colour, nose that reminds you of plums and blackberries, black chocolate, hefty, expressive tannins, well integrated, fruit that imposes over all the other elements and persists in an elegant finish. The name Quatro refers to the four grape varieties that composes the blend, which varies depending on each vintage. In this case, Cabernet Sauvignon 30%, Malbec 30%, Syrah 25% and Carmenère 15%."
